Defendant Dalton C. Gaudin respectfully submits the following Objection to Plaintiff Student Loan Solutions LLC's Request for Judicial Notice ("Plaintiff's RJN").

Plaintiff seeks judicial notice of an unpublished order from a trial court in a different county involving a different account and a different defendant. Plaintiff's RJN should be denied for two independent reasons:

1. Judicial notice is proper only where the noticed material is relevant, and Plaintiff has not explained the relevance; and

1 2. “[A] written trial court ruling has no precedential value” and is not a proper
2 subject of judicial notice. (See Bolanos v. Superior Court (2008) 169
3 Cal.App.4th 744, 761 (denying request for judicial notice of a trial court
4 ruling); accord. Wood v. Kaiser Foundation Hospitals (2023) 88 Cal.App.5th
5 742, 763, fn. 13 (same). See also Cal. R. of Court 8.1115 (prohibiting citation
6 of or reliance on unpublished opinion).)

7 Because Plaintiff fails to explain the relevance of the document for which it seeks 8 judicial notice, and because that document has no precedential value and may not be cited
9 or relied upon, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court deny Plaintiff’s Request for 10 Judicial Notice.
